Welcome to the St. Isidore Parish family through the Sacrament of Baptism

Liam James Bates, son of Simon and Amy (Hash) Bates of Sarasota, FL.

Children offer their time and talents

Jesus however called the infants to Him. "Let the little children come to me," He said; "do not hinder them; for it is to those who are childlike that the Kingdom of God belongs" (Luke 18:16).

Helping mom cook and riding my bike without training wheels, Spencer; folded and put away laundry and made dinner for my brother and I, Faith; practice piano and singing, Madison; washed the van, watered flowers and pulled weeds, Paige; cleaned toy room and watched my brother, Loren; swimming, fishing and dancing, Morgan; helped with garage sale, Isaac; help aunt clean and pray my prayers, Hannah; helped mom cook, drawing and baking, Rebekah; playing catch with dad and learned new football drills with dad, Josh; work on our summer packets, Jaden and Karli; going to Mass on a holy day and spelling, Drew; singing the Divine Mercy Chaplet and not whining, Seth; singing at Mass and drawing, Quinn; Mass and golf, Bryce; and Mass and basketball, Tate.

Dress up for the most sacred occasion

"Clothes say something about what we think, what we value. They also influence how we behave and feel. That our culture has become so casual about everything says something about us. I cannot exactly articulate it but it seems to say, 'nothing is really all that important.' But that is not true. Going to God's house IS important. Being ministered to by the King of Kings and Lord of Lords is astounding. Casual attire in these circumstances is simply inappropriate if we really think about what we are doing, where we are going and who it is we will meet. It does not necessarily follow that we must wear tuxedos and formal gowns. But decent semi-formal attire seems wholly appropriate. Sunday is special, God's House is special. Some things really ARE important and our clothing and demeanor ought to reflect this truth." For more thoughts from Msgr. Charles Pope, visit <http://blog.adw.org/2010/05/adore-the-lord-in-holy-attire-on-proper-dress-for-mass/>.
